

Kate Spade – Westfield San Francisco Centre

SAN FRANCISCO, CA

OWNER

Kate Spade New York

ARCHITECT

Freebairn, Smith & Crane

COST

Confidential

DURATION

3 Months

TOTAL GROSS SQUARE FEET

2,700

MARKET SECTOR

Retail

This 2,700 SF project required collaboration with an active mall and its management. Located in the Westfield San Francisco Mall Centre, Kate Spade requested wall-to-wall demolition and rebuild with a focus on updated corporate aesthetics and branding. The result included high-end brass finishes, intricate tiling with tight tolerances, and a detailed storefront.